

THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS SUCCESS IS TO BUILD YOUR PERSONALITY

About Us:

Every individual wants to become successful & aspires to be at the top. But it's not everyone's cup of tea to achieve what they have desired. The number of people who become successful are very few. Number of business leaders are very few. And not everyone who becomes graduate gets employed. Industry standards are changing. Business techniques are changing, and with the change, Business workforce demands are also changing. In today's highly competitive world, it is difficult for one to survive today in this highly competitive environment with only a degree in hand. Let's try to have a look at the survey data conducted by various prestigious organisations.

1) Total Enrolment in higher education stands at 3.85 crore in 2019-2020.

- All India Survey on Higher Education (AISHE 2019-2020)

2) The employability rate in India stood at 39 percent in 2021, which was a decrease by over seven percent compared to the previous year.

3) Less than half of the Indian graduates are employable, in 2021, as many as 45.9 per cent of graduates are employable.

4) Companies looking to hire freshers with specialised skills: Report

5) Young India lacks soft skills: Survey

6) India's demographic dividend - its young population - is in danger of becoming a liability. More than one-third of the millions that graduate each year are unemployable.

The above data obviously raise a big concern for Indian Graduates, Indian Education system, and the employers. Though the enrolment ratio in higher education is positive, but the employability ratio is alarming. Students get degrees but are less likely to get employment. And the big reason is the lack of employability skills in Indian graduates. Whether to have a private sector or Public sector job or to become an entrepreneur, It is very much important for a person to be skilled enough to cope up with the dynamic market to be at the top.
